

Day 6, 2022
December 16, 2022

Today was another rainy cold day.

When I chose my hotel I wanted to be centrally located so I could walk to most of the sights that I wanted to visit, with the cold and rain it has been more difficult than I expected so I decided to hire a car and driver for two days to cover more ground and keep me out of the cold and rain, I don't want to get sick before I get on the ship.

Breakfast is included at my hotel. We order what we want from their list the day before and then they deliver to my room at my chosen time the next morning, (I could get use to this). This is a picture of my typical breakfast. I do keep some items in my refrigerator for a snack later when I get back from my daily outing.

I just love all these little cars that I see, they are perfect for the narrow streets and the amount of heavy traffic.

Colosseo

It took me about 1 hour to walk completely around the colosseum. It is really really really big (HUGE).

Trevi Fountain

Spanish Steps

This is a beautiful fun area with wonderful shopping and people wearing high end fashions. I did a little shopping and bought a pair of gloves that actually fit my short stocky fingers from Semoneta, they have 110 stores around the world. I met the owner, quite a charmer, he must have been in his late 80's and has a girl friend on the side that he took to Hawaii. I will make another trip back here after all my sightseeing is over. I don't need to purchase anything, it's just a feel good area.

Castel Sant Angelo

St Peter's Basilica (Vatican City) in the back ground
