January 8, 2023
At Sea

I took a break and had a Pedicure/Manicure, I scheduled this three months ago for 10:00am and they ran late and did not take me till 11:00, it was OK job, nothing special, I could tell they were rushed and wanted to get to the next person. I headed back to my room but was stopped by Security and could not go down the hall. I believe someone had a heart attack because later a helicopter landed on the ship and took someone to the Hospital. Each Sea Day I have decided to do a little scouting on the ship and get the lay of the land. Today I went to the Tiger Bar & Lounge on Deck 6.

Day 29 Page 2

Tonight is Captain's Cocktail and Gala/Elegant attire in the Restaurants, Bars, Lounges etc.

The Show was Nature, it was like a Circus O lie mini show, and actually pretty good.
