Last night's Theatre Show: C'EST MAGNIFIQUE was performed by cast and crew. It was a powerful French Variety show with singers, dancers, and fantastic acrobats. It was definitely a high energy show. I enjoyed it very much.

Today would have been Mother's 95th Birthday, so I got all dress up for dinner and wore some of her diamonds that I had incorporated into some of my jewelry and had wonderful memories. It was also 60's-70's-80's and 90's night. Today, 5 years ago Hawaii had a Ballistic Missile Threat at 8:07am. A day that I will never forget.
