Agra-Delhi-Mumbai

We had a 08:15 pick up at the Hotel to go to the airport. I was scheduled and had prepaid for business class but was put on economy IndiGo Airlines. No business class all economy seats. In fact the guides abandoned me at the airport and I was left to get to Mumbai on my own. IndiGo flight 824 at 10:15, Seat 12C. I will try and correct aboard ship. The flight was about 2 hours and from the airport to downtown Mumbai was 1 1/2 hours on the bus then we stopped for lunch. After lunch we did a bus city tour then headed to the ship. When we got to the pier it took 3 hours with 5 security checks before we could board the ship. It was so good to get back on the ship.

Mumbai (formerly called Bombay) is a densely populated city on India's west coast. A financial center, it's India's largest city. On the Mumbai Harbour waterfront stands the iconic Gateway of India stone arch, built by the British Raj in 1924. Offshore, nearby Elephanta Island holds ancient cave temples dedicated to the Hindu god Shiva. The city's also famous as the heart of the Bollywood film industry.
