

Day 168 Page 1
May 27, 2023
Inside Passage, Alaska
(Cruising)

Today is my last full day at sea, next port Vancouver and then my flight home.

Day 169 Page 1
May 28, 2023
Vancouver, British Columbia

Celebrity Cruises offered a airport shuttle for $26.00 so we all took advantage of this. We had to be out of our cabins by 8:00 and no later than 8:30. Louis and Kate had a flight after lunch, my flight was 17:40, so I spent the day at the airport and John Potter stayed a couple more day's in Vancouver before he flies home.

I flew on Air Canada Business Class the plane does not have First Class. The plane was full and Business Class should have been Coach, I was not impressed. Business Class had 4 seats across and Coach seating had six seats across (they was really small and tight).

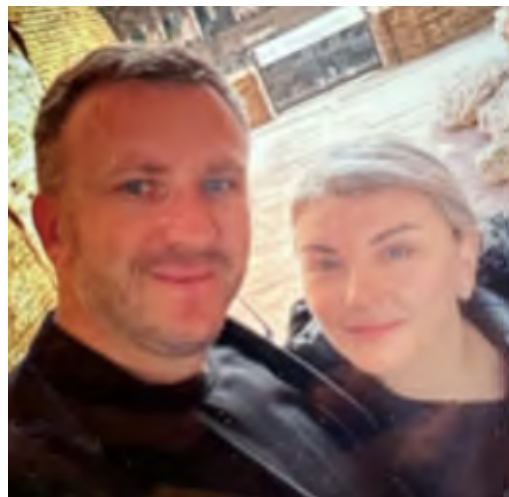

Air Canada
Flight AC 519
28 May/MAI 2023
From YVR Vancouver
Destination HNL Honolulu
Boarding: 17:05 Gate E 79 Seat 3C
Departing 17:40

I did have Lounge Privileges, (drinks and snacks) and had a place to rest before the flight. Because I arrived so early at the airport they would not let me check in until 13:45 and had to store my luggage ($25.00). The flight actually left early and we arrived one hour early in Honolulu, I was home by 21:30 Honolulu time. It's hard to believe that I'm actually home. When I think back my world trip (169 Days) seemed to go by very fast. Everything at home was like I just went away for a weekend. On my way home I worked on my plans for my next Next World Cruise.

A few of my friends and family that I met on my 2023 Journey.
